NEW YORKERS CHEER WHEN KERN SPEAKS

Space in Tammany Hall Was Filled.

NOISY WELCOME FOR NOMINEE

Bryan Speaks in Nebraska City and Receives a Different Welcome From That of Four Years Ago—National Committee in Need of $100,000 More.

New York, Oct. 15.—Should not the fact that men believe the candidate for the presidency intends, when elected, to violate the pledges made by him and his party, be the most potent reason why honest and patriotic men should withhold their support for him and his cause? Should not the fact that the candidate for the presidency is regarded as so honest as to be incapable of violating his platform, pledges be an argument against his election? These questions put by John W. Kern, the democratic nominee for the vice-presidency to a crowd that filled every available foot of room in Tammany hall tonight and were answered by an outburst of shouting and cheering, the like of which the nominee has not heard since he entered upon his speaking campaign five weeks ago.

Mr. Kern was given a noisy greeting when he entered the hall, and later when he was joined on the platform by Lieutenant Governor Chanler, the democratic candidate for governor of New York, the two men were kept busy for several minutes bowing their acknowledgements of plaudits of the crowd.

Mr. Kern declared that no honest business interest in the country had anything to fear from the election of Bryan, but that the mission of the democratic party was to build up a business and business enterprises and not destroy them.

of Christ ended tonight with a mass

Special to The Journal.
Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 15.—J. O.
Middleton, of Calera, nominee of the People's party for congress in the Fourth district, as well as the republicans, has been trying to get his name on the ticket as a populist. The same was sent out by the People's party to have been populist and now it cannot be changed. Mr. Middleton says it will cost him 400 votes. He is confident that he can beat W. B. Craig, the democratic congressman.

PREPARING TO WELCOME THE BIG FLEET

All Tokio Astir in Anticipation of Arrival of Battleships.

VESSELS TO ARRIVE THIS MORNING

Decorations Are So Extensive As to Be Remarkable, Not Only in Japan, But in Any Country of the World.
Papers Print Editorials of Welcome.

Tokio, Oct. 15.—All Japan is astir in anticipation of the arrival of the American battleship fleet. Yokohama and Tokio in particular are given over to enthusiastic preparation. The decorations in these cities are so extensive and general as to be remarkable, not only in Japan, but in any country of the world that awaited a naval call by the fleet of another power. All the Japanese newspaper of prominence are printing editions in English with lengthy editorials assuring the American officers and sailors of a hearty welcome by the nation.

Every available vessel in the harbor of Yokohama has been chartered to convey excursionists to meet the warships on their approach. A considerable fleet will venture out at sea in order to extend the first welcome.

The navy department has issued maps showing the manner in which the battleships will be anchored.
Each vessel is assigned to a buoy.
The American ambassador and his staff will meet the fleet aboard a special steamer and the members of the American commission to the Japanese exposition will have another. A third vessel has been chartered by the delegation of Pacific coast business men who arrived here several days ago.
The American-Asiatic Society will be represented by many of its members, who have arranged for a large steamer elaborately decorated.

BETWEEN DAWN AND NOON

Tokio, Sept. 15.—Some time between dawn and noon of Saturday, October 17, the American fleet of sixteen battleships, escorted by a squadron of Japanese war vessels, will swing around Hachigiyama into the beautiful harbor of Yokohama.
Sixteen welcoming men-of-war will salute and three hundred and thirty-six harmless guns will voice the timidity of the whole people of Japan.
The first scene of the first act of the week's engagement of the American fleet in Japan will doubtless be

NO DECISION IN THE MAYS-KEHOE CONTEST

Attorneys Conclude Their Arguments Before the Supreme Court.

MAY BE AFTER THE GENERAL ELECTION

Chief Justice Shackleford Says "That Five Men Have Got to Make Up Their Minds, and No Living Man Can Tell When That Will Be."

Special to The Journal.
Tallahassee, Oct. 15.—Argument in the Kehoe-Mays contest case was concluded at noon today by Judge Reeves, who began his speech yesterday for Contestant Kehoe. It had been understood that the court would render a quick decision in the case in view of the coming election, but this proved unfounded today, when Chief Justice Shackleford said after the adjournment of court that nobody could say when a decision would be reached.

"Five men have got to make up their minds," said he, "and no living being can tell when that will be." Judge Parkhill is not sitting on the case, being disqualified by his relationship to Mays, the contestee.

After the Election.
The record is voluminous and it is not thought that the decision of the court will be known in time to have any effect on the election. The secretary of state has certified the names of both candidates to the county commissioners and it is expected that the names of both will be on the ticket for the general election in November.

Bryan's Name Cheered at a Graves' Rally

Baltimore, Oct. 15.—John Temple Graves tonight addressed a gathering in the Princess theater in the interest of the Independence party. Graves in his speech credited Hearst with having injected into this campaign all the interest it possesses, and severely criticised both the Democratic and Republican parties.

He played W. J. Bryan, the mention of whose name, however, was heartily cheered. The speaker attacked the Democratic vice-presidential candidate, declaring Kern to be a paid representative of a railroad corporation convicted of criminality.
A man in the gallery was ejected for repeatedly shouting: "Are you not in pay of William Randolph Hearst?" The election of the questioner was followed by a call for cheers for Bryan, which were given in such a manner that Graves threatened to appeal to the police to secure him a hearing.

partment of the lakes, arrived in Chicago yesterday, accompanied by her spent the evening with them. The women are here for business in connection with the abandonment proceedings she entered against the colonel. Captain Logan Tucker, quartermaster in the marine corps, is now stationed in the marine barracks at Washington and is prepared to come on here at the call of his mother.

Chicago Players Given Ovation In Chicago and Along Route

Chicago, Oct. 15.—Exultant over their victory in winning the world's championship, the Chicago team of the National League, arrived home from Detroit early today and was met at the station by an enthusiastic crowd. The players, who were accompanied by members of the national commission, reported having met with ovations wherever the train stopped.

Encampment With the Regulars Was of Much Benefit to the Men.

MEN WERE PAID OFF IN FORENOON

Officers of the State Militia Are High in Their Praise
For the Regular Army Officers, and the Results Obtained From the Encampment.

The second encampment of the Florida state troops with the regulars at Fort Pickens and McRae came to a close yesterday and today the men are either at their homes or are on the way. They were astir at daylight yesterday morning, breaking camp and getting ready for the departure after 10 days of hard work in the maneuvers. By 3 o'clock in the afternoon they had been landed on Tarragona wharf and shortly after 5 o'clock they left Pensacola.
Yesterday was pay day with the state troops. At 10 o'clock in the forenoon the disbursing officers began paying off the men and this was completed before the noon hour, each man being given the allowance of the regulars for the same period of time.

A Special Train.

A special train made up of twelve coaches and five baggage cars, in charge of Conductor Atkinson, and pulled by two locomotives carried the men and their baggage. A large crowd of friends and acquaintances were at the depot to see them off.
Bugles were sounded and the soldiers bid Pensacola a noisy good-bye as the train left over the P. and A. division.

Received Good Training.

The encampment lasted ten days, and as a result of the exercises conducted jointly with the members of the regular army stationed at the local forts, the officers and men composing the state militia have gained considerable knowledge in the handling of big rifles and other matters connected with the proper conduct of actual service. The state militiamen are profuse in their praise of officers and men of the regular army, stating that their courteous treatment and assistance in carrying out the program of the encampment added greatly to the success of the joint exercises.

The officers of the regular army speak very complimentary of the men of the state troops and give them much credit for the manner in which they acquitted themselves throughout the encampment, both as to their conduct during their stay at the forts and their ability to execute orders.

The encampment was a success in every particular and no complaint had been heard from the men who participated in it. The men of the state troops are a gentlemanly body of soldiers and they made many friends during their stay at Pensacola.
